

Fly High on Father's Day

Come celebrate Fathers Day and introduce your children to a unique collection of military aircraft from World War II through the Cold War.

The event is free! Hot dogs, popcorn and drinks will be provided. Admission to the Museums is free.

Come see historic war birds in flying condition such as a Russian MiG-21, Russian MI-24, Hind helicopter (featured in Rambo), and B-24 Bomber. Also on display Russian training jets, WWII Ziggy recon plane, WWII Corsair (flown by the Black Sheep), DC3, Ah-1 Cobra (Snake) helicopter, and many more!

Event date and time: Sunday June 21st 11am to 4pm

Location: Lancaster Airport

Directions: Take I-35E south of I-20 to Belt Line. Go East approximately 3 miles to the Lancaster Airport entrance.

Bring your camera.

Your kids will remember this experience forever!

This event is sponsored by the Cold War Air Museum, The Commemorative Air Force, known as the “Ghost Squadron” and the Fathers for Equal Rights.
